

COVID-19 Vaccination Begins at One Medical

December 30, 2020

One Medical coordinates with San Francisco Department of Public Health to offer COVID-19 vaccinations to San Francisco Phase 1a populations

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- One Medical (NASDAQ: ONEM), a leading human-centered and technology-powered primary care organization, today announced it has begun administering vaccinations for Phase 1a populations who work or live in San Francisco, as defined by the San Francisco Department of Public Health, and in alignment with California Department of Public Health and Center for Disease Control vaccine guidelines. Efforts to begin vaccinations in other markets are proceeding as well.

One Medical is amongst the first primary care organizations in the nation to announce COVID-19 vaccination services. One Medical will vaccinate healthcare workers and other Phase 1a groups, as defined by the San Francisco Department of Public Health, and will also provide these individuals with complimentary 60-day One Medical memberships. An initial supply of hundreds of doses of vaccines is expected to grow significantly in the coming weeks.

With its technology platform, operations infrastructure, and clinical team, One Medical is well positioned to support broad COVID-19 vaccine efforts in markets across the country. "We are pleased to partner with departments of public health to serve our communities with COVID-19 vaccination services, leveraging our human-centered and technology-powered primary care platform," said One Medical Chair and CEO, Amir Dan Rubin.
