

University of Miami Health System and One Medical Announce Affiliation Focused on Seamless Coordinated Care

April 19, 2021

One Medical plans to bring its technology-powered primary care model to Florida

MIAMI and SAN FRANCISCO, April 19, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- With a shared commitment to transforming the healthcare experience, University of Miami Health System and One Medical, a leading national technology-powered primary care organization, will work together to deliver seamless coordinated care in South Florida.

The affiliation will provide South Florida area residents with coordinated care across One Medical's modernized primary care model and University of Miami Health System's network of providers, ambulatory facilities and hospitals. One Medical's membership-based model provides on-demand, 24/7 access to telehealth services, paired with convenient in-person care. In addition to a direct-to-consumer membership, more than 8,000 employers have sponsored memberships on behalf of their workforces. Together, the two organizations will aim to achieve greater clinical integration and deliver exceptional value to consumers and employers.

"Teaming up with One Medical is a great opportunity for the University of Miami Health System and for the community," said Dipen Parekh, M.D., Chief Operating Officer of the University of Miami Health System. "We share a vision to provide outstanding care to our community and to transform health care—while always putting the patient first. This new affiliation helps expand the impact of our University-based health system in the community."

The Miami-Dade region is One Medical's 18th planned market entry, following other anticipated market entries this year in Raleigh-Durham, North Carolina, Columbus, Ohio, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and Houston, Texas.

"We're delighted to work with the University of Miami Health System to offer an unrivaled patient care experience and seamless coordinated care across primary and specialty settings to help deliver the highest levels of value to consumers and employers," said Amir Dan Rubin, Chair & CEO at One Medical. "Working with UHealth further advances One Medical's mission of transforming health care for all, bringing our human-centered and technology-powered model to Florida."
